I want you to meet one of my dear friends, Kizito. Kizito is the face of CI-UCBC in Beni. As our Public Relations Coordinator, he hosts visiting groups and individuals, promotes CI-UCBC in area schools and churches, and serves as Master of Ceremonies for wedding receptions, community events, and celebrations. In short, Kizito is a man of many talents. For most people coming to CI-UCBC from outside the region, Kizito serves as greeter, host, negotiator, logistician, and traveling companion. Kizito is the one who makes the grueling 2-hour drive to the DRC/Uganda border to bring visitors across the border. He manages the paperwork as one crosses into DRC from Uganda. He stands firm in the face of constant pressure from government officials to pay bribes. His response to a bribe demand is, "UCBC is building a new country. That's how we are paying."

GoodShop for Congo Initiative

Still needing to do some last-minute Christmas shopping? If you haven't done so already, now is the perfect time to register Congo Initiative as your favorite charity with GoodSearch and GoodShop. When you search the internet through GoodSearch and shop online through GoodShop, your searches and purchases raise funds for Congo Initiative. It's so simple! Just follow these 3 easy steps:

1. Go to GoodSearch.com

I am an executive/electrical engineer at a large engineering firm in the States. I had the privilege to participate with Engineering Ministries International in helping CI develop a master plan for their campus in Beni, DRC. I was extremely impressed with the great work they are doing in that war torn country. They are truly making a difference.
